

Name _____

Directions: Underline all the PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES you can find below. Circle the PREPOSITION inside the phrase.

Example: Shannon ran across the street before she looked both ways.

Today I will go to the store and buy the candy in the display. My friend from school is planning to come with me. Then we will bike around town for a long time.

Name _____

Directions: Underline all the PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES you can find below. Circle the PREPOSITION inside the phrase.

Example: Shannon ran across the street before she looked both ways.

Today I will go to the store and buy the candy in the display. My friend from school is planning to come with me. Then we will bike around town for a long time.

Name _____

Directions: Underline all the PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES you can find below. Circle the PREPOSITION inside the phrase.

Example: Shannon ran across the street before she looked both ways.

Today I will go to the store and buy the candy in the display. My friend from school is planning to come with me. Then we will bike around town for a long time.

Name _____

Directions: Underline all the PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES you can find below. Circle the PREPOSITION inside the phrase.

Example: Shannon ran across the street before she looked both ways.

Today I will go to the store and buy the candy in the display. My friend from school is planning to come with me. Then we will bike around town for a long time.

