Reading and Research Essay
Source Information and Notes

Source A

Source Information: Fill in the fields below. If the source doesn't provide one or more of these, leave it blank. You may use this information to complete a form on a citation generator, or you may choose to type the citation yourself. Just be sure that you format your titles correctly, using quotation marks and italics when appropriate.

1. Author's Name.

2. Source Title.

3. Container Title,

4. Other Contributors,

5. Version,

6. Number,

7. Publisher/Sponsoring Organization,

8. Publication Date,

9. Location.

Was this found using a database?   Yes   or   No   If yes, record the name of the database: _____

Parenthetical Citation: Based on the information above, decide now what you must use in parenthetical citations for information from this source. Write it below for reference.

(   ).

Note: This is the FIRST item listed above. If it's an author, use the last name only. If it's a title, format it appropriately.

Information from this source in MY OWN WORDS—list key facts/details you may want to use in your essay.

DIRECT QUOTATIONS from this source—write out, word for word, phrases or sentences that are especially powerful and that you may want to include in your essay.

Reading and Research Essay
Source Information and Notes

Source B

Source Information: Fill in the fields below. If the source doesn't provide one or more of these, leave it blank. You may use this information to complete a form on a citation generator, or you may choose to type the citation yourself. Just be sure that you format your titles correctly, using quotation marks and italics when appropriate.

1. Author's Name.

2. Source Title.

3. Container Title,

4. Other Contributors,

5. Version,

6. Number,

7. Publisher/Sponsoring Organization,

8. Publication Date,

9. Location.

Was this found using a database?   Yes   or   No   If yes, record the name of the database: _____

Parenthetical Citation: Based on the information above, decide now what you must use in parenthetical citations for information from this source. Write it below for reference.

(   ).

Note: This is the FIRST item listed above. If it's an author, use the last name only. If it's a title, format it appropriately.

Information from this source in MY OWN WORDS—list key facts/details you may want to use in your essay.

DIRECT QUOTATIONS from this source—write out, word for word, phrases or sentences that are especially powerful and that you may want to include in your essay.

Reading and Research Essay
Source Information and Notes

Source C

Source Information: Fill in the fields below. If the source doesn't provide one or more of these, leave it blank. You may use this information to complete a form on a citation generator, or you may choose to type the citation yourself. Just be sure that you format your titles correctly, using quotation marks and italics when appropriate.

1. Author's Name.

2. Source Title.

3. Container Title,

4. Other Contributors,

5. Version,

6. Number,

7. Publisher/Sponsoring Organization,

8. Publication Date,

9. Location.

Was this found using a database? Yes   or   No   If yes, record the name of the database: _____

Parenthetical Citation: Based on the information above, decide now what you must use in parenthetical citations for information from this source. Write it below for reference.

(   ).

Note: This is the FIRST item listed above. If it's an author, use the last name only. If it's a title, format it appropriately.

Information from this source in MY OWN WORDS—list key facts/details you may want to use in your essay.

DIRECT QUOTATIONS from this source—write out, word for word, phrases or sentences that are especially powerful and that you may want to include in your essay.

Reading and Research Essay
Source Information and Notes

Source _____

Source Information: Fill in the fields below. If the source doesn't provide one or more of these, leave it blank. You may use this information to complete a form on a citation generator, or you may choose to type the citation yourself. Just be sure that you format your titles correctly, using quotation marks and italics when appropriate.

1. Author's Name.

6. Number,

2. Source Title.

7. Publisher/Sponsoring Organization,

3. Container Title,

8. Publication Date,

4. Other Contributors,

9. Location.

5. Version,

Was this found using a database? Yes   or   No   If yes, record the name of the database: _____

Parenthetical Citation: Based on the information above, decide now what you must use in parenthetical citations for information from this source. Write it below for reference.

(   ).

Note: This is the FIRST item listed above. If it's an author, use the last name only. If it's a title, format it appropriately.

Information from this source in MY OWN WORDS—list key facts/details you may want to use in your essay.

DIRECT QUOTATIONS from this source—write out, word for word, phrases or sentences that are especially powerful and that you may want to include in your essay.