

R&J Act 1—Terms Scavenger Hunt

Directions: Search through Act 1 to find one example of each of the terms listed below. Quote the text directly when giving the example, provide the line numbers and scene number for the location, and write in your own words what Shakespeare meant for the explanation.

TERMS	DEFINITION	EXAMPLE	LOCATION	EXPLANATION
Pun	Sample: a humorous play on words	Sample: "You have dancing shoes with nimble soles; I have a soul of lead."	Sample: scene 4, lines 14-15	Sample: Romeo plays on the words "sole" (as in the sole of one's shoe) and "soul" (as in his immortal being). Romeo is trying to explain to his friends that although they are all up for dancing and having a good time, he is too distraught to dance.
Oxymoron
Metaphor
Allusion
Aside
Monologue		(just quote the first line)
Foreshadowing				